

1 either for or in opposition? I think we should take first
2 delegates speaking for the amendment. Delegate Borom, do
3 you wish to speak for the amendment?

4 DELEGATE BOROM: Yes, Mr. Chairman..

5 THE CHAIRMAN: May I call to your attention
6 that each speaker in this portion of the debate is limited
7 to five minutes.

8 DELEGATE BOROM: That is more than anticipated
9 otherwise. Many speaking in behalf of unicameralism as I
10 listened to some of our experienced legislators talk about 11 the way the system operates, conference committees, it
12 occurs the issue here is probably not between bicameralism
13 or unicameralism, but tri, bi, and uni. On the con-
14 ference committee we have the third level in the govern-
15 mental system.

16 One of the reasons I am anxious to speak is that 17 earlier someone alluded to the origin of the unicameral
18 system in Nebraska and the way in which the distinguished 19 Mr. Norris succeeded in having this come through. I would 20 submit, I think all the former and present legislators
21 would agree, that many good things that have come through
